

Alternative Provision

At Oxenwood and Linkenholt Centres

Community First offers bespoke Alternative Provision for young people aged 7 to 16 (year 3 -year 11) who may be struggling to engage with mainstream education, experiencing anxiety or low confidence, or needing additional support to achieve positive outcomes.

Alternative Provision

Alternative Provision Offer

Our programmes take place at Oxenwood and Linkenholt Outdoor Centres and combine outdoor learning, practical activities and personalised support to help young people build confidence, resilience, independence and essential life skills. Provision is tailored to individual interests, needs and EHCP outcomes through a flexible "pick and mix" approach.

Programme Options

Bushcraft and Survival: Developing practical skills through shelter building, fire lighting, navigation, campfire cooking, first aid and emergency survival activities.

Outdoor Adventurer: Building confidence through activities such as climbing, paddlesports, mountain biking, hiking and navigation.

Discover History: Bringing history to life through artefact handling, heritage crafts, storytelling, role-play and historical investigations.

Rough Science: Exploring scientific concepts through hands-on experiments and investigations in an outdoor environment.

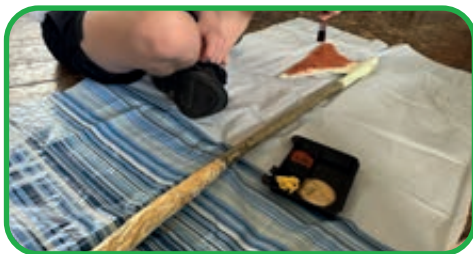

Numbers in Nature: Developing numeracy skills through outdoor maths, including measurement and problem solving.

Words in the Wild: Using nature as inspiration for reading, writing, storytelling and communication.

Naturally Creative: Exploring creativity through art, design, sculpture, drama, music and environmental art projects.

Oxenwood Taskmaster: Fun and engaging challenges designed to develop communication, confidence, resilience and problem-solving skills.

Cooking for Life: Learning cooking, nutrition and independent living through food preparation.
